

Diesel Mechanic

Purpose of Position:

To maintain diesel equipment operation by completing inspections, correcting vehicle deficiencies, and implementing preventive maintenance requirements

Key Responsibilities:

- On a daily basis, review and correct deficiencies identified on the Driver Pre/Post Operational Safety Checklist
- Determine vehicle condition by conducting inspections and diagnostic tests
- Identifying worn/damaged parts and correcting those deficiencies
- Keeps equipment serviceable and in good condition by completing preventive maintenance schedules
- Installs components and part upgrades
- Installs and maintains Trimble GPS units in working condition
- Greasing the vehicles every 250 hours
- Conducting oil change and filter replacement every 450 hours
- Provides emergency on-site maintenance to vehicles damaged in the field
- Coordinates service of vehicles with third party vendors when needed and approved
- Performs all work in a safe manner, upholding local, state, and Federal Environmental, Health, and Safety guidelines
- Lubricates and cleans parts
- Adhere to all safety rules and regulations
- Keep work areas clean
- Able to follow verbal instructions from a supervisor or management
- All other duties as assigned from your Supervisor

Working Conditions:

- Position is considered full time, overtime with approval of your supervisor
- Company vehicle provided for daily use during working hours

Requirements:

- CDL, Class B with Air Brakes
- Knowledge of hydraulic and electrical systems
- Previous experience working on diesel vehicles, preferred
- Must have hand tools up to 1/2 inch drive and wrenches up to 2 inches
- Union position

How to apply:

Irving Materials website, Fax: 615.250.7808 or any imi plant or office location